

Fair Women Who Have Been Much in the Public Eye

MADAME OLIVE VALLANDRI,
Prima Donna.

QUEEN MARY OF ENGLAND.

MISS FELICE LYNE,
the twenty-one-year-old Kansas City girl,
who has taken London by storm with her singing.

Before her marriage to H. Kellogg Durland
Mrs. Durland was the wife of Robert
C. Hulme, an actor.

DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

MISS EULA HITCHCOCK,
Stenographer to Samuel Browne, who had charge of the State witness in the McNamara case.

MRS. RUDOLPH BLANKENBURG,
Wife of the Mayor of Philadelphia.

MISS GWENDOLYN BURDEN,
Beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Townsend Burden.

MRS. MARTHA S. GIELOW,
Founder of the Southern Industrial Educational Association to promote industrial education among the children of the Appalachian Mountains.

MRS. IDA VON CLAUSSEN.

MISS MARY GARDEN, THE PRIMA DONNA.

Mlle. HELENE MIROPOWLSKI,
the first Frenchwoman lawyer, who is on a visit to London.

PRINCESS PATRICIA OF CONNAUGHT.

Mrs. CAROLINE M. SEVERANCE,
"Mother of Women's Clubs"

MISS FOLA LA FOLLETTE,
the daughter of Senator Robert La Follette.

PRINCESS STEFEL FREDERICK,
Kaiser William's daughter-in-law.

PRINCESS ELIZABETH OF ROUMANIA.
(Copyright, American Press Ass'n.)